Family, Domestic and Sexual Violence Responses 2021-27 FEDERATION FUNDING AGREEMENT - AFFORDABLE HOUSING, COMMUNITY SERVICES AND OTHER

Table 1: For	malities and operation of schedule
Parties	Commonwealth New South Wales Victoria Queensland Western Australia South Australia Tasmania the Australian Capital Territory the Northern Territory
Duration	This Schedule will commence as soon as the Commonwealth and one other Party sign it and is expected to expire on 30 June 2027.
Purpose	1. This Schedule supports the vision of the National Plan to End Violence against Women and Children 2022-2032 (National Plan) to end violence in one generation, and acknowledges the role of States and Territories (States) in delivering frontline services that respond to family, domestic and sexual violence (FDSV).
	2. The Schedule will:
	<ul> <li>Support service providers to deliver critical FDSV services and meet demand, and to support those who need it most.</li> </ul>
	<ul> <li>Support service providers to trial new initiatives and undertake reforms to address emerging jurisdictional priorities and identified needs related to FDSV service delivery.</li> </ul>
	<ul> <li>Enhance data and reporting across jurisdictions on the use and impact of the Schedule funding.</li> </ul>
	d. Align with and build on key policy frameworks including the National Plan, the underpinning 5-year Action Plans, First Nations National Plan and dedicated Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Action Plan, Closing the Gap, the National Framework for Protecting Australia's Children and Australia's Disability Strategy 2021-31.
	e. Acknowledge that responding to violence is a shared responsibility of all Australian governments, with States having primary responsibility for funding frontline services. Jurisdictions can use Schedule funding flexibly in order to account for the contexts and settings of their jurisdictional needs, in line with the terms of the Schedule.
	f. Support the recruitment of 500 new frontline and community family, domestic and sexual violence sector workers nationally.

	g. Deliver innovative approaches to address perpetrator behaviour.
Funding Principles	<ol> <li>States will use the Schedule funding, within the context of responding to frontline FDSV service needs in their jurisdiction, in line with the following principles:</li> </ol>
	(a) fund services or support victim-survivors directly, or develop the capacity or capability of services, including for emergency planning and disaster responses. Funding must not be used to subsidise the operations of State government departments or agencies, or to fund infrastructure projects;
	(b) respond to demand and address priority areas of need
	(c) support the needs of children as victims in their own right, including through bespoke, targeted programs;
	<ul> <li>(d) support inclusion, access and equity to ensure diverse people and groups who have experienced and continue to experience systemic barriers to support (including, but not limited to, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, Culturally and Linguistically Diverse (CALD) peoples, women on temporary visas, people with disability, LGBTIQA+ communities, older people, people living in regional, rural and remote locations, women at risk of imprisonment or exiting imprisonment, victim-survivors leaving violent situations who have pets) can access help in a timely and appropriate manner;</li> </ul>
	<ul> <li>(e) address all forms of family, domestic and sexual violence and non- physical forms of abuse, such as coercive control, technology- facilitated abuse and financial abuse;</li> </ul>
	(f) implement new initiatives or reforms aimed at addressing emerging priorities, based on collaboration and information sharing between Parties and, as identified in the National Plan and associated Action Plans, and by the Women and Women's Safety Ministerial Council.
	(g) align the implementation of the Schedule with the National Plan, the First Nations National Plan and the underpinning 5-year Action Plans and dedicated Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Action Plan;
	(h) build reporting requirements into funding agreements with service providers in order to provide high-quality and consistent data to the Commonwealth, as per the Schedule reporting requirements, and continue to work with the Commonwealth to improve national FDSV data collection; and <ul> <li>(i) meet the reporting performance milestones and reporting requirements in a timely manner.</li> </ul>

Estimated financial contributions	<ol> <li>The Commonwealth will provide an estimated total financial contribution to the States of up to $619.9 million in respect of this Schedule.</li> </ol>
	5. States will make financial contributions in respect of funding for the FDSV National Partnership 2021-23 and FDSV National Partnership 2023-25 component of this Schedule, which demonstrate a commitment to address demand in their respective jurisdiction and are commensurate with the Commonwealth's investment. State contributions may be drawn from existing commitments. The Commonwealth will agree to States' financial contributions prior to making relevant payments (not applicable to funding for 500 workers and innovative perpetrator responses).
	6. State financial contributions are not required in relation to the 500 workers and innovative perpetrator responses components of this Schedule, however States are encouraged to contribute additional funding to these components if they choose to.
	7. The Commonwealth contribution against Table 1 and Table 4 is allocated across States on a per capita basis with a loading for remote and very remote communities. Table 1 also reflects additional funding of $10.73 million allocated to the NT in 2022-23.
	8. The Commonwealth contribution against Table 2 and Table 3 is outlined below.

	(c) family, domestic and sexual violence helplines;
	(d) housing and accommodation services;
	(e) specialist support services for children;
	(f) specialist support services for diverse people and groups outlined in Funding Principle (3d);
	(g) legal support and court based services;
	(h) direct funding support for victim-survivors (for example, brokerage funding or flexible support packages);
	<ul> <li>(i) perpetrator interventions and men's behaviour change programs; and</li> </ul>
	(j) other generalist or specialist services providing support for people experiencing FDSV.
	11. States must seek the Commonwealth's agreement in writing to fund any services or initiatives that are not in this list.
FDSV Responses	12. Payments will be made through four equal payments spread across two financial years, unless otherwise agreed by both parties in writing.
2021-23	13. States are to use Payment 1 to address frontline service gaps and demand in the context of the ongoing impacts the COVID-19 pandemic, as required where identified by States (see funding principle 3(a-b)).
	14. States are to use Payments 2-4 to support innovative service delivery models, implement reforms, address market gaps, support the needs of diverse people and groups, develop projects identified through the National Summit on Women's Safety, or to undertake evaluation to assess the services, programs or initiatives proposed under the scope of Payments 2-4 and enhance frontline sector capability (see funding principles 3(b-g)).
	(a) The Commonwealth and States will seek to agree the scope for the full payments prior to Payment 2, where possible, in order to facilitate a strategic approach to planning and allocating funding.
	15. These arrangements, including identifying projects, must be agreed by the Commonwealth before payments will be released.
FDSV Responses	16. Payments will be made through two equal payments spread across two financial years, unless otherwise agreed by both parties in writing.
2023-25	17. States are to use Payments to support frontline service delivery models, implement reforms, address market gaps, support the needs of diverse people and groups, develop projects identified through the 5 year Action Plans and dedicated Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Action Plan; or to undertake an evaluation to assess the services, programs or initiatives proposed and enhance frontline sector capability (see funding principles 3(b-g)).

	18. States' financial contributions outlined in Clause 5 must include work to improve coordination and integration across jurisdictions and to drive improved data collection, reporting and sharing by jurisdictions, in line with commitments made in the First Action Plan of the National Plan to improve the national evidence base by working towards consistent terminology and monitoring and evaluation frameworks, and by strengthening collection and sharing of data and evidence.
	19. States will be required to participate in evaluation activities for the FDSV National Partnership in 2023-25.
	20. These arrangements, including identifying projects, must be agreed by the Commonwealth before payments will be released.
500 workers	21. Funding for 500 workers is subject to the same terms and conditions and in line with the overarching purpose and funding principles outlined in this Schedule, with the exception of Clause 10(h).
	<ul> <li>a. Workers cannot be allocated to roles providing perpetrator intervention or men's behaviour change programs. However, workers can be allocated to roles providing victim-survivor support within a perpetrator intervention service.</li> </ul>
	22. This funding is being provided for commitments announced in the 2022- 23 October Budget relating to new frontline and community sector workers who can provide support to those experiencing family, domestic and sexual violence.
	23. The funding bolsters frontline workers directly engaged in the FDSV specialist sector as well as workers that intersect with FDSV services, including (but not limited to) shelters and crisis services, financial counsellors, and specialist services to support children. Workers can perform a variety of roles within these organisations, but roles must include engagement with victim-survivors.
	24. Funding is to be used to recruit new workers, and is not to be allocated to existing workers. The number of workers outlined in Table 8 refers to FTE positions.
	25. The 500 workers initiative has been developed on the basis that half of the workers will be trainees and half will be fully qualified. States can fund a greater proportion of fully qualified workers if preferred (and contribute any additional funding required). States can determine what constitutes a trainee or fully qualified worker with reference to existing State employment and qualification frameworks. References to rural, regional and remote areas in Table 8 align with the Australian Statistical Geography Standard (ASGS) Remoteness Structure:

	a. Inner Regional Australia
	b. Outer Regional Australia
	c. Remote Australia
	d. Very Remote Australia
	26.References to specific geographic areas in Table 8 align with the ABS Statistical Area Structure.
	27. Workers to support LGBTIQA+ people should be allocated to LGBTIQA+ health community organisations where practicable. In the event that a suitable LGBTIQA+ health community organisation is not available, workers to support LGBTIQA+ people can be allocated to a generalist service to support LGBTIQA+ clients.
Innovative Perpetrator Responses	28. Funding for Innovative Perpetrator Responses is subject to the same terms and conditions and in line with the overarching purpose and funding principles outlined in this Schedule, with the exception of Clause 10(a-h and j).
	29. This funding is being provided for commitments announced in the 2022-23 October Budget and 2023-24 Budget relating to innovative perpetrator responses.
	30. Each jurisdiction will be offered up to $3.374 million over five years from 2022-23 to deliver innovative approaches to address family and domestic violence perpetrator behaviour. These approaches may include new technological solutions for electronic monitoring; or multi-agency groups (with support services for alcohol/drug, mental health, housing), coordinated by case managers who help perpetrators address their various needs; or other innovative approaches proposed by the state or territory.
	31. The States bear all risk should the costs of a project exceed the agreed estimated costs. Similarly, the States will not be required to pay a refund to the Commonwealth if the actual cost of the project is less than the agreed estimated cost of the project. The Parties acknowledge this arrangement provides the maximum incentive for the States to deliver projects cost effectively and efficiently.
	32. The overall outcome of this initiative is to eliminate violent or controlling behaviours by perpetrators and build evidence for ways of achieving perpetrator behaviour change by trialling new or different approaches of working in perpetrator behaviour change.
	33. Funding of up to $500,000 may be released to undertake a scoping or feasibility study proposed by the State and agreed by the Commonwealth. The purpose of the study is to inform a future proposal/s of innovative approaches to be trialled by the State.
	34. Funding provided under the 2023-24 Budget ($0.249 million per jurisdiction), which is in addition to the $3.125 million provided as part of the 2022-23 October Budget, may be used:

	a. To expand the trials to support an increased number of people
	b. To support evaluation of the trials and/or
	c. To support enhancements to the trials.
	35. The State will be required to submit a project plan for agreement by the Commonwealth before any payment will be released. Project plans must include:
	(a) how the funding will be used
	(b) how the project adresses the Early Intervention or Response priority areas of the National Plan
	(c) how the project will establish or utilise an appropriate advisory group including victim-survivors and experts such as the Australian Institute of Criminology
e	(d) details of the proposed innovative approach(es) to be trialled, including target population, location, and intended outcomes
	(e) how the innovative approach(es) meets the specified criteria for innovation
	(f) an appropriate evidence base to support that the approach(es) would have a reasonable prospect of success; and that success could be measured. This could include a similar program that has been successful in another location or that addressed a similar problem, and a monitoring and evaluation plan
	(g) proposed evaluation methodology and how data will be collected to support this
	(h) any sensitivities and/or concerns identified about the proposed approach. This may include potential issues, the sector's views, and how the new initiative will feed into, and be supported by, current service systems
	(i) an assessment of risks and mitigation strategies
	<ul> <li>(j) if a scoping/feasibility study is to be undertaken the associated project plan may provide the following in lieu of the detail specified in Clause 35 (d-g):</li> </ul>
	<ul> <li>i. details of the scoping or feasibility study to be undertaken, including consultations to be undertaken, potential innovative approaches, available evidence to support proposed approaches, target populations, locations and intended</li> </ul>

	outcomes under consideration
	<ul> <li>how the idea(s) to be scoped meet the specified criteria for innovation.</li> </ul>
	36. An updated project plan must be submitted and agreed by the Commonwealth in the event a State wishes to change their approach.
Reporting and accountabilit y	37. The Commonwealth and States will collaborate closely to deliver meaningful improvements in data and reporting, in order to better understand the needs of the FDSV sector, ongoing demand, the client base, and the service delivery models that drive effective outcomes.
	38. The reporting expectations for this Schedule will build on those set under the National Partnership on COVID-19 Domestic and Family Violence Responses, including disaggregated service and client level data.
	39. This commitment will align with the FDSV-related data projects being undertaken by the Australian Institute of Health and Welfare and through the Data and Digital Ministers Meeting, to reduce duplication of effort and ensure consistency.
Media and publicity	40. As provided for under Clause 21 of the Federation Funding Agreement - Affordable Housing, Community Services and Other – Parties must ensure prior agreement is reached on the nature and content of any events, announcements, promotional material or publicity relating to activities under this Schedule.
